

Instead of trying to hide our true beliefs and exclusions, let's get them out on the table. Let's be honest. Using these 8 questions from James Sire's "Universe Next Door", let's work out what we believe:

1. Creation: Where did the world, and the people on it, come from?
2. Humanity: Where does a person's value and worth come?
3. Purpose: What's the great goal of human existence?
4. Evil: What keeps people from achieving their purpose in life?
5. Good: What must be done to overcome the evil in the world?
6. Justice: Who/What is the final authority on right and wrong?
7. Death: What happens to someone after they die?
8. Lifestyle: What lifestyle do these answers lead to and demand?
